

CANADIAN JACQUES MARITAIN ASSOCIATION
OTTAWA SYMPOSIUM, OCTOBER 28-29, 2011

Friday, Oct. 28, St. Paul University (G102/Classroom)

12:00 – 1:00 pm

Pamela J. Reeve, “Philosophy and Social Reform: Engaging the Binomial Logic of the Market-State”

1:00 – 2:00 pm

Brent Renalli, “Three Grand Narratives”

2:00 – 3:00 pm

Richard Bastien, “Capitalism – a Cultural By-Product of Catholic Christianity”

3:00 – 4:00 pm

Frederick Matern, “A Sacralized Cosmopolitanism: Alexander S. Panarin’s Russian Orthodox Political Economy as a Response to Globalization”

KEY NOTE SPEAKER (G1124 Amphitheatre)

7:00 pm

Aaron Ben’Zeev, "Love, Religion, and Commercial Transactions"

Reception following (Atrium)

Saturday, Oct. 29, Dominican University College (St. Albert-le-Grand)

9:00 – 10:00 am

Jean-Nil Chabot, “An Endeavor to Rationalize Maritain's ‘Society without Money’”

10:00 – 11:00 am

David Bellusci, “Florence, the Papacy and the banks”

11:00 – 12:00 pm

John Liptay, “Is the Economic Thought of Caritas in Veritate Incoherent?”

12:00 – 1:00 pm

LUNCH

KEY NOTE SPEAKER

1:00 – 2:00 pm

Thomas M. Jeannot, "Personalism, Atheism, and Marxist-Humanism"

2:00 – 3:00 pm

Christopher S. Morrissey, “Does Free Trade Undermine Food and Water as Human Rights? Distinguishing Ontological Aspects of the Problem with Contributions from Jacques Maritain and Thomas Aquinas”

3:00 – 4:00 pm

Leonard Ferry, “Should we like money too? Maritain and Catholic Social Teaching”