

Bonus points to be added to your final grade. If you find that there is a discrepancy between the points next to your ID number and the points you think you should have, then email Dianne Ross at x2007tlj@stfx.ca (cc me on the email) and provide as much information as possible about the studies you participated in, including the subject matter of the study, the name of the student running it, and the name of the supervisor of the study. If you have the date that you participated that would be helpful. Your yellow cards from your studies are evidence of your participation in the studies and the students running the studies should have initialed them after the study was complete.
